J. Davis Scott Made Lieutenant Senior Grade

Lieutenant J. Davis Scott, USNR, former Bethlehem Globe-Times and Allentown Call reporter, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant senior grade, it has been learned here.

In recognition of Lieutenant Scott's ability and his eagerness for active duty he was transferred some time ago to a U. S. Marine Corps air group for overseas service. He was temporarily on shore leave on the West Coast. The group to which has been assigned includes Major Joseph Foss, No. 1 American war ace. Major Foss, a Marine, shot down 26 Jap planes during his service on Guadalcanal and was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Lieutenant Scott entered Federal service Nov. 17, 1941. He is the husband of the former Rose Rita Devlin, who resides with her mother at 411 Brodhead Avenue, this city.
