MRS. CLARA WEAVER A THREE-STAR MOTHER

One in Coast Artillery, Another in Air Corps, Third in Navy.

Three sons in as many different services of the nation's armed forces is the proud record of Mrs. Clara Christ Weaver, 1627 Elm Street. All three young men have enlisted, one in the Army Air Corps, another in the Coast Artillery, the third in the Navy.

First of the trio to sign up was Mrs. Weaver's son, Herbert Christ, now aged 24, who in 1939 joined Battery C, 213th Regiment Coast Artillery, (Anti-Aircraft), this city's National Guard unit. He served with the battery in the South and since then in New York and New Jersey. Two days ago he married Anna Ozakus, of this city.

Last April Herbert's brother, Roy Christ, aged 19, enlisted for service with the Air Corps, being sent first to Fort Meade, Md., then to Mississippi, then Rhode Island and finally to Richmond, Va., where he is now stationed.

Youngest in the service though oldest of the three in age, being 26, is Frank Christ, who enlisted two weeks ago in the Navy and is now at Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

Mrs. Weaver's husband and stepfather of the trio is Harvey Weaver.
