Pfc. Ronald Frantz Out of Army After European Service

Pfc. Ronald W. Frantz, 706 N. High Street, has been honorably discharged from the Army at the Indiantown Gap Separation Center after more than two and a half years of service.

He served overseas with the 809th Engineer Aviation Battalion, attached to units of the famous Fifth Army in Italy and Southern France. Doughs of his outfit chased the Nazis up the Italian peninsula and then joined the assault which smashed German defense lines in France.

For his action duty with the victorious Fifth Army, Pfc. Frantz has been awarded the ETO Ribbon with four battle participation stars. He also holds the Good Conduct Medal and World War II Victory Medal.

A graduate of Bethlehem High School, he was employed by Giant Food Fair, Broad Street, before he entered the service.
