

Miller, Kenneth E.

Gets Air Medal in South Pacific

JUN. 12 1944

HEADQUARTERS, 13th AAF, South Pacific—Pictured above is First Lieutenant Kenneth E. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Miller, 408 Prospect Avenue, Bethlehem, co-pilot of a B-25 at an advanced base in the South Pacific being presented with the Air Medal by Colonel "Light Horse" Harry Wilson of West Point football fame, who is his Group Commander.

The Air Medal was recently awarded to Lieut. Miller by the Commanding General of the South Pacific area for "participating in flights of a hazardous nature during which enemy opposition was encountered, and where anti-aircraft fire was effective." Lieut. Miller "exhibited great courage and untiring energy; his services reflecting the highest credit on the military forces of the United States."

Lieut. Miller's wife, Mrs. Jessie Carpenter Miller, resides at 408 Prospect Avenue, Bethlehem.

June 12, 1944