

Pors, John F.

Bethlehemites Attend Get-Together In London

NOV 3 1943
Pennsylvania broke the record at the American Red Cross Mostyn Club in London, Eng., recently with the largest gathering of native sons yet held under this roof. One hundred and seventy-three men crowded the lobby and halls.

Attending from Bethlehem were Staff Sergeant John F. Pors, 523 Fillmore Street, and Tech. Fifth Grade Sigmund Wardenski, Fourth Street.

Two brothers, who had not seen each other for nineteen months, were Staff Sergeant Frank J. and Private Samuel F. Martello of Luzerne.

"Funny thing was," said Frank, "we both crossed the Atlantic in the same convoy and didn't know it!"

Nov. 3, 1943