Wounded in France

AUG 24 1944

A telegram was received Tuesday from the War Department by Mrs. Earl Hartzell, 1548 Oakland Street, stating that her husband, Sgt. Earl Hartzell, has been wounded in action in France.

Sgt. Hartzell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hartzell, 1414 Courtland Street, was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company before entering the service, July, 1941. He received training at Camp Wheeler, Fort Bragg, Fort Dix and then was sent overseas.

Hartzell has been overseas 23 months and has been in Scotland, Ireland, England and in the North African, Sicilian and French campaigns. Sgt. Hartzell is in an Army Hospital in England at present. A brother, Raymond Hartzell, S 1-c, is on active duty in the South Pacific.
