

Milazzo, James

Bangor Soldier
Loses Life in
New Guinea

JUL 3 1944

Word has been received here by Mrs. Lida Mirto Milazzo of North Sixth Street, Bangor, that her husband, Cpl. James Milazzo of the United States Army, was killed in action on June 6 in the fighting in New Guinea. The telegram bearing the information was directed to Mrs. Milazzo last Friday.

Cpl. Milazzo entered the United States Army on Aug. 4, 1943, and after basic training at Camp Blanding, Mississippi, he was sent to an embarkation point and went to the South Pacific theater of operations in February, 1944.

July 3, 1944