CORP. EARL L. CORTRIGHT

He was recently graduated from the Army Air Force School at Chanute Field, Ill., having received his rating as corporal three days before his graduation.

Corporal Cortright passed his course in mechanics and instruments.

He has been in the Army seven months, receiving his training at New Cumberland, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Seymour Johnson Field in North Carolina and Chanute Field, Ill. He is now on his way to a replacement center at Salt Lake City, Utah. He attended the Fountain Hill schools and was inducted into the service in August, 1942.
