

Miller, Parry J.
Frederick

Pvt. P. J. Miller Dies in Action In Germany

OCT 31 1944

Pvt. Parry J. Miller has been reported killed in action in a War Department telegram received by his wife, the former Ruth Eck, 465

PVT. P. J. MILLER

Liberty Street, Allentown. According to the telegram, he was killed in Germany October 13.

Inducted March 25, 1944, he received basic training at Camp Blanding, Fla., and was sent to Fort George Meade, Md., before going overseas September 10.

A former Bethlehem resident, he is a graduate of Liberty High School and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company prior to his induction.

He is survived by his wife; Mrs. Harry B. Diehl, his mother, a sister, Elaine Miller, at home, and a brother Frederick, of Northampton, now serving with the U. S. Navy overseas.

October 31, 1944