

Mack, John W.

Easton Captain Runs Recreation Program at Gap

Mack, Lafayette Graduate, Has Charge of Theaters

Upon the capable shoulders of Captain John Wilbur Mack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mack, 673 Ferry Street, Easton, has fallen the job of managing four theaters and the recreational and athletic program for the Army's Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, one of the largest and most important centers of its kind in the nation.

CAPT. J. W. MACK

Through his training, Capt. Mack became well fitted for managing a broad program. During his last year at Valley Forge Military Academy, where he was graduated in 1935, he was cadet captain, and for having the best company in the battalion was awarded a saber and commissioned a second lieutenant in the ROC. He was graduated from Lafayette college in 1939 and called to active service as a first lieutenant in September, 1941. A year ago he was promoted to captain and assigned to special service.

With the captain at Indiantown Gap are his wife and their 20-months-old son.
