

Geiger, Louis E.

Advances

Pfc. Louis E. Geiger, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Geiger Sr., of 238 East Union Boulevard, observed his twenty-second birthday anniversary Saturday somewhere in Hawaii. He was promoted recently. He was inducted into the armed forces January 28, 1942, and received his basic training at Atlantic City, N. J. From there he was transferred to Fort Monmouth, N. J., where he graduated from a school of communications, after completing a 12-week course in radio and telephone. From Fort Monmouth, he was transferred to Kearns Field, Utah, where he received combat training. Following an 11-day furlough spent at his home, Pfc. Geiger returned to Kearns Field from where he was transferred to a replacement center on the West Coast. Pfc. Geiger, in a letter received at his home recently, reports he is now operating radio receivers somewhere on the islands. Prior to his induction, Pfc. Geiger was employed as an electrician at the Bethlehem Steel Company.

December 6, 1943