

Sterner, Allen R.

Lt. In Air Corps

JAN 8 1945

Silver wings and the bars of a Second Lieutenant were pinned on the blouse of another advanced navigator graduating class at Ellington Field, Texas. Among the officers who have completed many months of intensive training, was Lt. Allen R. Sterner, 1219 West Broad Street, who will soon be guiding Army Air Force Bombers and transports to destinations throughout the world.

In civilian life, Lt. Sterner was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.
