Corp. Kotze, in the service one year and five months, is now stationed at Camp Cooke, Cal., with the Sixth Armored Division of the U. S. Army. He has only recently received his second stripe.

Michael is one of three boys in the service. The other brothers are Pvt. Edward, in the Signal Corps, now stationed at Drew Field, Tampa, Fla., and the youngest brother, Pvt. William Joseph, is stationed at Camp Joseph T. Robinson, Arkansas. The two younger brothers were inducted about four months ago.
