Arlene M. Kindt Is Married to Lieut. James E. Ray

JUL 6 1943
Miss Arlene M. Kindt, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kindt, of Allentown, and Lieut. James E. Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Ray, 1103 Raymond Avenue, were married Wednesday, June 30, at 7 p. m. in the chapel at Camp Sutton, N. C. The chaplain of the post, the Rev. Basil Halbert, officiated.

The bride was attired in a white flannel suit with navy blue accessories and wore a corsage of white orchids. She was given in marriage by Col. Bertram Morrow, on whose staff Lieut. Ray is now serving.

Following the wedding, a dinner party was given for the young couple at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Raymond J. Stewart in Monroe, N. C. After a brief honeymoon, visiting places of interest in that section of the state, Lieut. and Mrs. Ray will reside at 400 East Windsor Street, Monroe.

The bride is a graduate of the Slatington High School and was also a student for several years at the Kline-Baum Art School. For the past two years she has been associated with the Merchants National Bank of Allentown.

Lt. Ray enlisted in the Army in June, 1942, after being graduated from Franklin and Marshall College and is now stationed at Camp Sutton with an Ordnance MM Company.
