

Nuss, Garwood H.

Commissioned
SEP 1 1944

Flight Officer Garwood H. Nuss, son of Mrs. J. H. Otten, 5 Findlay Avenue, won his silver wings and an AAF commission this week at the Army Air Forces Navigation School, Honda, Texas.

After 18 weeks of intensive training involving 15,000 miles of practice combat flight in twin engined training craft, the young man is thoroughly qualified to chart long-distance bombing routes for the AAF's B-19's and other ships.
