Overseas Veterans Arrive at Miami After Home Flight

A group of overseas veterans heading for homes in this area arrived at Miami Army Air Field recently as Air Transport Command's Caribbean Division reached the 1,000-a-day peak in flying troops home from far-flung battle fronts.

The group included: Pvt. Clarence W. Unangst, 26, of 801 Main Street, this city, who completed six months overseas service with the Infantry in Italy; F/Sgt. Edward C. Vivian, 26, of 715 Packer Street, Easton, who holds five battle stars, terminated 36 months overseas duty with the Engineers in Germany; and Pvt. George Czar, 29, Phillipsburg, who completed 29 months overseas service in Italy and now holds four battle stars.
