

Borlodan, Nicholas

ENJOYING VICTORY'S FRUITS

A Bethlehem soldier who has campaigned in Africa with the U. S. invasion force is now reported to be a member of the Sicilian occupational army, Pvt. Nicholas Borlodan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Borlodan, 32 East Union Boulevard, is resting on his laurels for the moment and enjoying the fruits of victory.

Pvt. Borlodan entered the service June 13, 1942 and received his basic training at Fort Meade. He was later stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C. and was sent overseas from there. He is a former employee of the Bethlehem Steel Company.
