

Herman, William C,

Trains For Red Cross Field Service Post

Studying to take up duties with the American Red Cross is William C. Herman, 1004 West Union Boulevard, Bethlehem, who left for Washington, D. C., early this week to enter the American University. He will undertake field service in an Army camp, presumably overseas, when his training is complete.

Mr. Herman, a former furniture salesman, will go to Fort Knox, Ky., after two weeks at the university. There he will be given two more weeks of instruction and assigned to a post.

He is the father of three daughters, Betty, Jean and Marilyn.
