

Climate Action Plan: “This is a big deal”

The Bethlehem Gadfly Climate Action Plan, Environment, Environmental Advisory Council, Serious Issues January 8, 2020

 Latest in a series of posts on the Climate Action Plan

In a surprise addition to Monday’s City Council agenda — so surprising it occasioned a procedural question — City Council voted on and approved a contract with a firm to develop our Climate Action Plan.

An exuberant Councilman Reynolds, who — working with the Administration, the Environmental Advisory Council, and others — brought us to this moment, called the plan a “big deal.”

Which it certainly is!

Kudos all around.

AUDIO FILES NOT AVAILABLE IN THIS ARCHIVE

Beautiful Reynolds’ words about the plan we love to hear:

- City-wide energy reduction plan
- Sustainability initiative
- An Education piece
- Connection to social justice
- Discussion of pedestrian bridge
- Discussion of Food Co-Op
- Discussion of walkability
- It’s Wednesday January 8, 2020. Do you know where your Climate Action Plan is?

Yes!