LIEUT. CHARLES H. JONES PROMOTED TO CAPTAIN

JAN 5 1943
Telephone Message to Wife's Parents at Fountain Hill Tells of Advance.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Knauss, 723 Broadway, on Saturday at 5 p. m. received a long distance telephone message from their son-in-law, First Lieutenant Charles G. Jones, M.D., stationed in the U. S. Medical Corps at Camp Shelby, Miss., informing them that he had just received the promotion to a captaincy.

Mrs. Jones, the former Marion Knauss, who was married to Captain Jones last July by the Rev. D. L. Steinhauer, of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Fountain Hill, is with her husband. They reside at Hattiesburg, Miss., close to Camp Shelby.

Mrs. Jones was graduated from the Lankenau Hospital School of Nursing, while Dr. Jones served his internship at the hospital.

Captain Jones is a graduate of the Paxtonville High School and the Susquehanna and Temple Universities. He enlisted in May, 1942, and was sent to Camp Shelby. Later on he was transferred to Carlisle in September where he was a student in the officers' training school in preparation for the captaincy.
