

Hewett, James E.

Pen Argyl Man Gets Silver Wings, Army Commission

JUL 6 1943

James E. Hewett, twenty-four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hewett of 311 Mountain Avenue, Pen Argyl, recently was graduated from Advanced Twin-Engine Army Flying School at the Columbus Air Field, Columbus, Miss. He received the Silver Wings of a Flying Officer and also received the commission of a Second Lieutenant in the Army Air Force.

He entered pilot training last August at Carlstrom Field, Arcadia, Fla., after having been in the Army for some time, securing a transfer as an aviation cadet. He is a graduate of the Pen Argyl High school, class of 1935. He attended the Akron University, Akron, Ohio.

July 6, 1943