

Strunk Jr., George

Pfc. George Strunk Jr.,
Bangor R. D., FEB 22
Wounded In Germany 1945

George Strunk, Bangor R. D., received a telegram from the War Department this morning informing him that his son, Pfc. George Strunk Jr., was wounded in action in Germany on February 3.

Pfc. Strunk was inducted into service January 18, 1941, and received training at Fort Houston, Tex., before going overseas in 1943. Prior to his induction he was employed by Flory Milling Company in Bangor. The telegram inferred details of his wounds will follow in a letter.
