

Deutsch, David E.

Officer Promoted

OCT 3 1944

The promotion of David E. Deutsch from 2nd Lieutenant to 1st Lieutenant has been announced by Lieutenant General Doolittle, Commanding General of the Eighth Air Force.

Lt. Deutsch is a combat officer of a Liberator Group which is actively participating in the current aerial offensive against occupied Europe. As intelligence officer, he briefs the crews before each mission, explaining to them the disposition and strength of enemy fighters and anti-aircraft installations and upon their return from Europe, interrogates them as to enemy strength, unusual movements and other things of interest to intelligence. The group to which he is assigned recently received a commendation from Lt. General Spaatz.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Deutsch, 440 Webster Street. He graduated from Bethlehem High School and Lafayette College. Deutsch has been overseas several months, and before entering the Army in February, 1943, was employed as Metallurgical Inspector by the Bethlehem Steel Company.
