

Leonhardt, Frederick H.

FOUNTAIN HILL GIRL TO BE BRIDE SATURDAY

Miss Edna Hannaford to be Wed to
Pvt. F. H. Leonhardt.

In St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Fountain Hill, Saturday at 2 p. m., Miss Edna G. Hannaford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hannaford, 96 Spring Street, Wilkes-Barre, will become the bride of Private Frederick H. Leonhardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Leonhardt, of Gauff's Hill.

The double ring ceremony will be used by Rev. D. L. Steinhauer, pastor of the church and brother-in-law of the bride, who for more than a year has been making her home with Rev. and Mrs. Steinhauer on Tomblor Street.

Mrs. Verna L. Grube, organist of the church, will give an organ recital while the guests are assembling. Soloist will be Miss Ethel Remaley, of Gauff's Hill.

After the ceremonial a reception will be held at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Miss Hannaford is a graduate of Coughlin High School, Wilkes-Barre. She will have as her attendants, her sister, Mrs. Steinhauer, as matron of honor; and Miss Elaine Brader, of Philadelphia and Betty Laub, Allentown, cousins of the bridegroom; as bridesmaids.

Stuart Brader, of Philadelphia, cousin of the bridegroom, will be best man. Ushers will be Donald Laub, of Allentown, and Edwin Ziegenfuss, of Bethlehem.

Private Leonhardt attended Liberty High School and for some time was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company before being inducted into the Army last May. He was first sent to New Cumberland, thence to Camp Blanding, Fla., and later to Camp Edwards, Mass.
