

Worth, Wallace

Meet In North Africa

Two companions left Bethlehem together with the 213th Regiment, Coast Artillery, Anti-Aircraft, September, 1940, and were separated on the shores of New Jersey in July, 1942.

OCT 8 1943

They are Sgt. Wallace Worth, son of Alderman and Mrs. Wallace Worth, 631 Ninth Avenue, and Staff Sgt. Walter Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sanders, 926 Wood Street. These two boys met recently in North Africa according to a letter received yesterday by Mrs. Sanders, the former Mis Marion Birkbeck.

The Sanders' have a daughter seven months old, and the daddy has not seen her since she was nine days old. The baby is named Sandra Hulen, named for the Camp Hulen, Texas, where her father was stationed when she was born.

Oct. 8, 1943