Nevin Fidler To Report To Coast Guard Reserve

Nevin L. Fidler, 527 West Union Boulevard, will leave Monday morning for preliminary training in the U. S. Coast Guard Reserve at Manhattan Beach, N. Y. He was accepted last Monday at the Allentown Induction Center as a volunteer from Northampton County Board 4 last Monday.

After graduation from Lehigh University with a B. A. degree in 1938, the young man spent two years with the Bethlehem office of the Call-Chronicle, then went to Easton as manager of the branch office there in 1940, returning to Bethlehem as manager a year later.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Fidler, 1962 West Union Boulevard, Fidler is a graduate of Bethlehem High School class of 1934.

He is the father of a son, Nevin Jr., aged four. After a month's preliminary training at Manhattan Beach, he expects to be assigned to duty with the Sixth Naval District at Charleston, S. C.

At a gathering in the Bethlehem Eagles Club Thursday night he received a number of farewell gifts.
