

Stebelski, John

No. 1 Man in Class

FEB 8 1945

Word has been received by Mrs. John Stebelski, Goepf Circle, that her husband, Sergeant John Stebelski, United States Army, was graduated recently from the Army Port and Service Command School for non-commissioned officers as No. 1 man in the class.

Sgt. Stebelski, a veteran of the Kwajalein and Eniwetok campaigns, who has been overseas for 16 months, is now serving his fifth year in the service. Sgt. Stebelski has a brother in the service, also overseas, and a sister in the WAVES, presently stationed at New Orleans as a parachute rigger.

Mrs. Stebelski, the former Amelia Becker, who resides with her parents, is employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.
