

LIONS CLUB HONORS THOS. BUTTERFIELD

Club Member Will Join Armed Forces Wednesday; Given Diary.

Thomas E. Butterfield, Jr., was given a send-off party by the Lions Club at its meeting today in Hotel Bethlehem. Ralph Sotzing was chairman of the meeting.

Mr. Butterfield, a club member, will leave for army service as a selectee Wednesday morning. He will go to Fort Meade, Md. He was given the Lion soldier's diary as a parting gift on behalf of the club.

Walter C. Ruthhart made the presentation, also giving to club President Donald S. Sawyer two service flags, one for each club member in the nation's armed forces the second member being Col. L. C. Atwood. It was announced that each of the service flags would be embroidered with the names of the service members.

During the social program the Lichty Trio, marimba players, entertained. A skit, "The Life of a Private", in costume, was presented by Harry C. Woods, sergeant; C. E. Goodenough, corporal, and Mr. Butterfield, private.

Guests for the session were R. O. Coffin, guest of Mr. Sawyer, and John Krayjsa, of the Allentown's Lions' Club, guest of Al Smith; Thomas E. Butterfield, Sr., guest of Mr. Butterfield, Jr., and Raymond Roberts, of the Edgeboro Boy Scout troop, club guest, who sounded the various Army bugle calls during the skit, and E. H. Lichty and his three children, who formed the trio.

Clarence B. Haney lead group singing for the gathering. Mr. Sotzing, chairman of the entertainment committee, and the committee arranged the day's program.