John Denofia Gets Promotion In Army

John Denofia, son of Mrs. Concetta and the late Domenic Denofia, of 340 Franklin Street, now wears the chevrons of a staff sergeant of the U. S. Air Corps, according to information received by his mother.

A graduate of West Point High School, he enlisted in the air corps about three years ago. He is stationed at Stewart Field.

Corporal James Denofia, U. S. Air Corps, is stationed at Tampa, Fla. Before entering the service he boxed in the 135-pound class.

Private Thomas Denofia, another brother, inducted into the armed forces about four months ago, has been assigned to the U. S. Tank Corps, and is stationed at Camp Hood, Texas. JUL 13 1943
