

Helbig, Ralph

Gets First Stripe

JAN 18 1944

Ralph Helbig, son of Mrs. D. Helbig and the late Ernest Helbig of 712 Hertzog Avenue, Fountain Hill, has been home on furlough. After his boot training at Parris Island he was promoted to private first class. He joined the Marines on October 25, 1943. He received the sharp-shooting medal and other decorations. Upon his return he will be stationed at Camp Le Jeune at New River, N. C.

January 18, 1944