

Margolis, Robert

Commissioned

APR 24 1944

LT. ROBERT MARGOLIS

Robert Margolis, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Margolis, 1825 Jennings Street, Bethlehem, Pa., received his commission as 2nd Lieutenant and graduated as a navigator from the U. S. Army Air Force Navigation School at Coral Gables, Florida, on Saturday, April 22. Lt. Margolis graduated from Liberty High School on June 15, 1942, and immediately entered Pennsylvania Military College, Chester, Pa., where he completed three semesters, majoring in engineering and military science. He was a member of the college orchestra, band and rifle team while attending P. M. C. He enlisted in the U. S. Army Air Forces during the early part of the year, 1943, and he was called for active duty on May 31, 1943. He was originally assigned to Keesler Field, Biloxi, Miss., for his classification work and was subsequently transferred to North Carolina State College, Raleigh, N. C., Army Air Force Center, Nashville, Tenn., Bombardier School at Ellington Field, Texas, and his final assignment to the Air Force Navigation School from which he graduated last Saturday. Lt. Margolis returned home this morning for a short furlough.

April 24, 1944