Finkbeiner-Stine Engagement Is Announced

At an informal gathering last evening, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Finkbeiner of 1071 Wyandotte Street announced the engagement of their daughter, Adlee Mae Finkbeiner, to Harry Raymond Stine Jr., U. S. N. of University Heights. Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Stine Sr., accompanied by their family and Mrs. Stine's mother, Mrs. Mabel Newhart, and the latter's son, Raymond Newhart, both of Northampton, were present at the announcement party.

The Rev. N. M. Cressman, pastor of the Twelfth Street Baptist Church, Allentown, and Mrs. Cressman and family were guests also. Before the announcement, the Rev. Mr. Cressman told a Bible story of an engagement which took place 4000 years ago. Donald and Ethelia Cressman sang a duet, accompanied by their mother, after which refreshments were served.

Miss Finkbeiner is a graduate of Fountain Hill High School and Bethlehem Business College and is employed by the Weston-Dodson Company. Mr. Stine Jr. is a third class petty officer at the Naval Training Station, Norfolk, Va., and is a graduate of Bethlehem Technical High School. He was home on leave and will return tonight to his station. OCT 7 1943
