

Taglang, Alfred R.

Notes Anniversary
While On Furlough

S. Sgt. Alfred R. Taglang, home on furlough, for the first time in four years is celebrating his birthday anniversary today. He has spent the past 40 months in the Central Pacific area and was at Pearl Harbor at the time of the attack. Previous to his induction into the army he was associated with his mother, Mrs.

Anna M. Taglang in the grocery business on Wyandotte Street. He is a member of an anti-aircraft unit, coast artillery, stationed at headquarters.
