

McArthur, Carl W.

Carl W. McArthur
Made Staff Sergeant
At Air Force Base

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE BOMBER STATION, Eng.—Promotion of Carl W. McArthur, 22, of Bethlehem, Pa., from sergeant to staff sergeant, has been announced at the 388th Bomb. Group, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Chester C. Cox, of Superior, Wis.

Sergeant McArthur is ball turret gunner on an Eighth Air Force B-17 Flying Fortress that has been taking part in the bombing attacks on Nazi war industries and military targets in support of Allied ground forces.

His wife is Mrs. Elsie McArthur of 609 East Fifth Street, Bethlehem. Before entering the AAF in February 1944 he was employed by the Jacobs Aircraft Engine Company at Pottstown.

December 8, 1944