

Baum, Robert E. Jr

NAVY MAN PROMOTED

Robert E. Baum, Jr., has been promoted to Warrant Officer, according to word received by his wife, the former Frances Wesenberg, 940 Delaware Avenue.

Warrant Officer Baum enlisted in the Navy August, 1937, and was serving aboard an aircraft carrier in the Pacific at the outbreak of the war. After participating in several naval battles, he was transferred to the Atlantic for anti-submarine patrol duty. At present, he is serving aboard a warship "somewhere in the Pacific." His parents reside at 322 South New Street.
