

Simmons Jr., Carlisle O.

PROMOTED TO SERGEANT.

7-14-1942

After serving five weeks as a corporal in the U. S. Medical Corps, at Carlisle, Oliver Simmons, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Simmons, of 1761 West Broad Street, was promoted to the rank of sergeant on July 4. Word of his promotion to corporal only reached this city Monday from official sources.

A former star athlete at Liberty High School, Sergeant Simmons spent the week-end with his parents.

July 14, 1942