

Keleher, Francis V.

With Outfit Having
Two Years' Service
In British Isles

MAR 28 1944

Sergeant Francis V. Keleher, 907 West Fourth Street, this city, is one of the men of a Signal Corps detachment stationed in England who recently celebrated their second anniversary in the British Isles with a party in a London restaurant. This detachment was one of the first three American Army units to be stationed in Britain and was twice commended by their commanding general for efficiency and devotion to duty.

March 28, 1944