

Kromer, Woodrow W.

Dinner For Recent Bomber School Graduate

A roast duck dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Kromer, Brookside, Danielsville, R. D. 1, in honor of Corp. Woodrow W. Kromer, who was graduated recently from the B-24 Liberator Bomber School at Willow Run, Army Air Base, Michigan.

At the conclusion of his furlough Corp. Kromer will report to Salt Lake City, Utah. Another guest of honor was Robert L. Fogel, Jr., U. S. N., who received his promotion last month as a first class fireman. He is stationed at the Little Creek, Va., amphibian base.

Present were Mrs. Woodrow W. Kromer, who just returned from Michigan with her husband; Esther Kromer, Allentown; Mrs. Sarah Kromer, Nazareth; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Kromer and children, Sonny, Robert and Shirley, Chapman Quarries; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sassaman and daughter, Anna, of Reading; Jacob Schlegel and the host and the hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn C. Kromer.
