

Lehr, Warren K.

Bangor Soldier
Serving in Manila
With Ordnance Unit

DEC 11 1946

T/5 Warren K. Lehr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lehr, 438 South Third Street, Bangor, one of the original members of the Pennsylvania Reserve Defense Corps, is serving with the 3018th Company, 141st Ordnance Base Automotive Battalion in Manila as a final inspector in the Ordnance Engine Rebuild Shop.

Cpl. Lehr entered the Army at Fort Dix, N. J., in June, 1943, and arrived at Finschaffen, New Guinea, at the height of the campaign, which stopped the Jap advance toward Australia. In April, 1945, Lehr moved to his present station in Manila and is authorized to wear the Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with one campaign star, Philippine Liberation ribbon with one star and the Good Conduct Ribbon.

He is a graduate of Bangor High School. Prior to his entry into the service, he was employed as a heater helper by Bethlehem Steel Company.

December 11, 1946