Bangor Soldier
Slightly Wounded ¹⁹⁴⁵

Private First Class Pasquale Capozzolo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isidore Capozzolo, Bangor, has notified his parents that he was slightly wounded in action some time ago.

Private Capozzolo entered the Army in June, 1941, and received training at Camp Wheeler, Ga., and Fort Wood, Mo. He has been overseas for two years. A brother, Phillip Capozzolo, serving with the Army in the European theatre, was also wounded in action some time ago.
