

Barnes, Clarence!

FIVE VALLEY YOUTHS
JOIN U. S. MARINES

Celebrate Independence Day Observance by Enlisting.

Five young men from the Lehigh Valley area spent the Independence Day week in enlisting in the United States Marine Corps, it was announced last night by Sgt. Donald Dodge of the Allentown recruiting service of the Marine Corps.

They are: Clarence E. Barnes, of R. 1, Bangor; Charles Plushanski, Glen Gardner, N. J., William Jones of Pen Argyl, Donald L. Riek, of Riegelsville, and Walter W. Edelman of Nazareth R. 3.

Barnes enlisted on the Fourth of July. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Barnes and is a graduate of Bangor high school. Now he is undergoing training at Parris Island, S. C., one of the famous bases of the Devil Dogs.

Another July 4 enlistee is William Jones, son of Mrs. Norma Smale, of Pen Argyl. Jones, a graduate of the Pen Argyl high school, is also at Parris Island.

Riek also enlisted on Independence Day. He is the son of Henry Riek. He was enlisted during the pageant at Independence Hall at Philadelphia. Also enlisting July 4 was Edelman the son of Mrs. Margaret Edelman.

7-10-1942

Jul 10, 1942