ENSIGN GEORGE S. FOX

Training Center last week.

The graduation ceremonies, at which he and other members of his class received their commissions and Navy wings from Rear Adm. A. E. Montgomery, USN, commandant of the NATC, marked the completion of a long, intensive training course qualifying them to take their places with the fleet.

Ensign Fox, former student of Lehigh University, and Muhlenberg College, where he was a member of the Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity, volunteered for flight training last June and received preliminary flight instruction at the Philadelphia Reserve Aviation Base.
