Rotondo, Salvatore J.

Army Corporal
MAR 7 1945

Private Salvatore J. Rotondo, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Rotondo, 810 Wyandotte Street, has been promoted to the rank of Corporal. He entered the armed forces in May, 1943. Upon completion of his basic training at Fort Bragg, N. C. he was sent overseas to England, February, 1944. The 20-year-old soldier and his brother, Corporal Daniel Rotondo, are both in Belgium but have been unable to arrange for a meeting thus far. Cpl. Rotondo was employed in the Bethlehem Steel Company and by a local orchestra before entering the service.

COMPLETES BOOT TRAINING
Garrett P. Roche, son of Mrs. Betty Castelluci, 1467 Sixth Street, has completed his boot training at Bainbridge Md., and will attend Radio-Electrician School at Norfolk, Va.
