

Hessinger, —

Long Overseas, Local Men End Service

SEP 29 1945

Sgt. Louis Reghi, 728 Eleventh Avenue, was honorably discharged from the service yesterday at the Newark Army Air Field Separation Center after serving four years and six months with the Army Air Forces, and another Bethlehemite, Cpl. Joseph Hessinger, honorably discharged at the same time, served three years and six months with the Army Air Forces.

Sgt. Reghi, as an aircraft armorer with the 93rd Bomb Group, 8th Air Force, saw three years services in England. His medals include the Distinguished Unit Citation with one cluster, the American Defense Ribbon, the Good Conduct Medal and the European Theatre Ribbon with eleven battle stars. Before entering the service the ex-sergeant was employed by the Roller Smith Company. His brother, Pvt. Gene Reghi, is serving in France with the U. S. Army.

Cpl. Hessinger, as an Aircraft Mechanic with the 95th Bomb Group of 8th Air Force, saw 24 months service overseas in England. He wears the Good Conduct Medal, European Theatre ribbon with 8 battle participation stars and the Distinguished Unit Citation with 2 clusters.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hessinger, 926 Fernwood Street, Cpl. Hessinger is married to the former Miss Judith Lazun who maintains a residence at 647 East North Street. Before entering the service, the ex-corporal was employed by the College Shop as a barber. He now plans to capitalize on the military training he has received in the Air Corps by obtaining employment as a mechanic.

September 29, 1945