

Maxwell, John W.

Army Captain

Mrs. Irma Maxwell, 714 Fourteenth Avenue, has just received word of the promotion of her husband, 1st Lt. John W. Maxwell, to Captain in the U. S. Army.

Captain Maxwell has been Post Exchange Officer in Aruba, Netherlands West Indies just off the coast of Venezuela since May, 1943. He was sent there soon after graduating from the Army Exchange School in the Graduate School of Princeton University, and with the exception of a short period of temporary duty at home last February and March, has been serving there since. Capt. Maxwell has served as Special Service Officer and Theatre Officer. Recently he was relieved of the latter assignment to take over the management of the Officers Club at his post. In civilian life, he occupied the position as manager of the Supply Bureau at Lehigh University, where he will return. DEC 4 1945

December 4, 1945