

Fenton, John R.

Pfc. John R. Fenton
On Duty With Chinese Command

Pfc. John R. Fenton, a former Liberty High School and Blair Academy student, is now on duty with the Chinese Combat Command, the United States Army organization working in the field with the Chinese army to increase their effectiveness against the Japanese invaders.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Fenton, Madison, N. J., he arrived in China with the American 475th Infantry Regiment when most of that organization was flown from Burma by the Air Transport Command.

Pfc. Fenton entered the Army in July, 1943, and received his training at Camp Hood, Tex., and Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. Arriving in Burma, in May, 1944, he fought with his unit in the North Burma campaign to secure the Burma Road against the Japs. He is holder of the Combat Infantryman's badge. In his opinion, the worst part of the campaign was the Japs' artillery barrage, which continued for 15 days.

August 14, 1945