

Repash, George P.

Private 1-C

DEC 21 1944

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Repash, Sr., 1117 Third Avenue, Hellertown, have received word of the promotion of their son, George P. Repash, to Private First Class in a hospital somewhere in England where he is recuperating from a foot injury received while serving with the 401st Glider Infantry in Holland.

Pfc. Repash received his basic training at Camp Blanding, Fla. before leaving for overseas duty in England. He landed in Holland in September, 1944, where he was active for several months before being injured.
