

Yartimick, Charles

Local Soldier Helps
Build Army Hospitals
In Battle Theaters

Private First Class Charles Yartimick son of Mrs. Anna Yartimick, 1717 East Third Street, is a plumber and constructor worker with a Peninsular Base Section General Construction Engineering Company which has built three Army hospitals and constructed the official Army radio receiver and transmitter for Allied force headquarters.

Pvt. Yartimick has been overseas 20 months and wears the Mediterranean Theater ribbon with two battle participation stars.

Dec. 16, 1944