THREE COUNTY GIRLS
ENLIST IN SERVICES

JAN 25 1943

Two Join Nurse Corps, One in SPARS.

Three Northampton County girls have enlisted in the service of the United States. Two of them will leave for the nursing service and one in the SPARS, women's reserve of the U. S. Coast Guard.

Elizabeth Bertrand, 1610 Washington Street, Wilson-Borough, will report Monday at Fort Belvoir, Va., for duty with the Army Nurse Corps. She is a daughter of Mrs. Edward Bertrand, Philadelphia, and was graduated from Wilson High School and Easton Hospital School of Nursing. She did general duty nursing at the Philadelphia Graduate Hospital and was recently engaged in private duty nursing.

Helen Rohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rohn, Nazareth, has joined the Navy Nurse Corps. She was graduated from Nazareth High School and Reading Hospital Nursing School. She had been on the staff of the Allentown Hospital.

The second girl in the Easton vicinity to join the SPARS is Mildred Wickett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wickett, East Bangor. She was sworn in on Monday in Philadelphia and is waiting for orders to report for duty. She was graduated from Bangor High School and is employed by the Sterling Silk and Glove Company, Bangor.
