

Brown, Charles
Thomas

RETURNS FROM HAWAII

Mrs. Anthony Manaway, of West Pen Argyl, has received word that her brother, Charles Brown, has arrived in the United States after spending three years and three months in Hawaii and seeing active service in the battle zone. Twenty-three years old, he is now a medical patient in Nichols General Hospital at Louisville, Ky., for a heart ailment. His brother, Thomas, of the U. S. Army Quartermaster Corps, is stationed in Panama. A half-brother, Joseph Moro, is an engineer in British Columbia.
